

Introduction and Thesis

Grade: 4

The introduction is engaging, and the thesis is fairly clear, though it could be more specific.

Content and Argumentation

Grade: 2

The essay provides some valid arguments but lacks depth. A stronger focus on evidence and counterarguments would improve it.

Organization and Structure

Grade: 3

The essay has a somewhat logical structure, but transitions between paragraphs are inconsistent.

Critical Thinking

Grade: 5

The essay demonstrates excellent critical thinking, offering unique perspectives and insights into the topic.

Use of Evidence

Grade: 1

Evidence is minimal or poorly integrated into the essay. Supporting examples are vague or missing.

Clarity and Coherence

Grade: 4

The writing is mostly clear and coherent, though some sentences could be more concise.

Conclusion

Grade: 2

The conclusion restates the thesis but lacks a strong closing statement or summary of key points.

Grammar and Mechanics

Grade: 5

The essay is free of grammatical errors, and the language is polished and professional.
